Joint Action Committee (JAC) Report

Committee Chair:
Sean Tighe
Epsilon Theta, Georgia Institute of Technology

Committee Advisors:
Crystal Wright
Iota Theta, Southeast District Counselor

Charges to Committee:
1. Review the report from the 2013 Joint Action Committee.
2. Analyze the bid guidelines document, as required by the Tau Beta Sigma SED Operations Manual.
3. Interview all Convention host bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
4. Discuss ways to improve SED Convention.
5. Discuss ways to improve joint relations at SED Convention.
6. If necessary, interview Eighth Note bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
7. Analyze and discuss the progress of the Eighth Note, based on the new criteria presented in the 2014 year.
8. Evaluate the reading band and auxiliary clinic as implemented in 2014.

Implementation of Charges:
1. Reviewed the report from the 2013 Joint Action Committee.
2. Reviewed the bid guidelines document for Eighth Note Bids and SED Convention, as required by the Tau Beta Sigma SED Operations Manual.
3. No bids for the 2015 SED Convention were presented to the Committee. As per Article VII of the TBS SED Constitution:
   a. “2a. “If no bids are received to host the conference by the prescribed deadline, the District Councils will determine a site, which must be approved by the District Governors and Counselor(s) will determine the location.”
4. Discussed ways to improve SED Convention:
   a. Better signage from the parking lot
   b. An activity/socials for current members not just alumni
   c. Consider starting seating delegates on Saturday morning instead of Friday night
   d. Marketplace:
i. More room for marketplace. Consider both moving it outdoors and keeping it indoors.

ii. Rethink schedule/hours for marketplace to find a happy medium for committee meetings and workshops for each member to attend plenty of both. We understand that attendance at committee meetings is extremely important.

iii. Consider opening marketplace during registration on Friday night ▪ How will that affect cost for each chapter manning tables?

iv. Marketplace still at convention site but also before banquet (if logistically possible)
   ▪ Many times doors aren’t even open for banquet when people get there, good idea to have tables there to see items

5. Possibilities to improve joint relations at convention and district overall
   a. Keep joint workshops
   b. Look into creating a joint district ceremony (we understand that timing and logistics are a large obstacle)
   c. Written record of a chapter directory, ways for Corresponding Secretaries (CoSecs) to interact
      i. Make an official directory ▪ Delegates provide contact information for their chapter to help make this directory ▪ Possibly bring a worksheet to convention with information (consider making it a part of online registration)
      ii. How would we designate a time or place for CoSecs?
         ▪ After delegates are seated in sessions
         ▪ During a session without many items on the agenda
         ▪ During committee meetings
         ▪ Have a potential (or portion of a workshop) topic geared toward CoSecs

6. There was one bid presented from Gamma Epsilon for the Eighth Note. After the interview and further discussion, the committee voted to slate the bid from the Gamma Epsilon.

7. The committee extensively discussed the current format of the Eighth Note (rolling online submissions with a print edition at SED Convention). The committee was in favor of keeping this format and working to set this as precedent for future editions of the publication. This format has been in place for two (2) years.

8. The committee was unable to attend the reading band and auxiliary clinics due to the prescribed schedule. However, comments were gathered from fellow chapter members. Reading band received extremely positive reviews, and both sisters and brothers enjoyed the event. The auxiliary clinic received largely positive reviews, but it was brought up that experienced auxiliary members lacked interest for the entirety of the clinic. In addition, the committee heard suggestions of adding Chamber Music and/or a Jazz component to reading band. It was also brought up to consider having Reading Band on Friday with a possible performance for the Joint Session.

Charges to the 2015 Committee on Joint Actions:

1. Review the report from the 2014 Joint Action Committee. Analyze the bid guidelines document, as required by the Tau Beta Sigma SED Operations Manual.
2. Interview all Convention host bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
3. Discuss ways to improve SED Convention.
4. Discuss ways to improve joint relations at SED Convention.
5. If necessary, interview Eighth Note bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
6. Analyze and discuss the progress of the Eighth Note, based on the new criteria presented in the 2015 year.
7. Evaluate the reading band and auxiliary clinic as implemented in 2015.
8. For the Eighth Note, strongly encourage one print submission at SED Convention in addition to the rolling online submissions.
9. Explore the possibility of jazz reading band and smaller chamber ensembles additions for Reading Band
10. Consider a Joint social on Friday, possibly being the addition of reading bands or other ensembles
11. Explore the possibility of the creation of a joint governing document for voting and discussion purposes

- Article II Section 3 part c: add “…appointed positions (who are non-voting members), and the…” so that part c reads as follows:

These affairs shall include evaluating and reviewing bids for District convention and The Eighth Note and recommending the respective host chapters for each.

  2. District Officer and Committee Chair Reports. All District Officers and Committee Chairs shall submit typewritten copies of all reports to the Executive Council by the end of each District Convention. One copy shall be given to each of the District Officers and Counselor(s).

  The Committee discussed at length the changes that needed to be made in our District Constitution and District Operations Manual concerning the District Publication. We conferred with the Kappa Kappa Psi Southeast District Committee on Jurisdiction (Chair by Trent Locher) to come up with a clear and concise solution that is consistent across the organizations should the publication be hosted jointly. The major changes are the following: Hosts are required to keep the online submissions updated regularly AND have a digital format (be it PDF or other document type) of the publication to cut down on the cost of printing the Eighth Note but still maintain the quality of the publication.

- Article VI Section 1 part c: changes were discussed to reflect the rolling online submissions to the Eighth Note throughout the year. Part c will read as follows:

  b. Deadlines and Content. The deadline for submission of articles shall be rolling throughout the school year prior to the District Convention, with the viewing of the Eighth Note available at any time in its online format.

  In the event that the Host Chapter(s) fail to publish the online edition of the Eighth Note within any three month period, the District Governors of Kappa Kappa Psi and District Counselor(s) of Tau Beta Sigma will confer and select an alternate Chapter to publish the Eighth Note with preference given to those Chapters that submitted bids to host it at the most recent District Convention.

- Article VI Section 1 part d: Financing. Strike the entire part with the knowledge that the publication is going digital.

- Article VI Section 1 part e: strike “A minimum of one copy per issue of the Eighth Note shall be sent to each Chapter and Colony in the District

  b. Distribution. Host chapters must have a digital format of the publication ready no later than 2 weeks prior to District Convention to be sent out to District Officers, the Presidents of other Districts, and the National Officers.

- Article VII Section 2 part a: propose change to accommodate the possibility of no bids to host District Convention are submitted to JAC. The change will read as follows:

  a. District Convention shall be held annually, at a site chosen in joint session at the previous Convention. If the location for the next Convention is not determined by the end of the current Convention: a window to submit bids to host the District Convention will be opened for thirty days following the close of the current District Convention. Upon the ending of the submission window, the joint District Councils, District Governors, and District Counselor(s) will select the Host Chapter(s) from the submitted bids.

- Article VIII Section 1: clarifying that it is the duty of the host chapter to organize the logistics of Reading Band, but it is the District Council’s duty to provide a director and music

1. Reading Band. At each District Convention, there shall be held a Reading Band open to all college band members and directors, but without preference to membership in Tau Beta Sigma, unless circumstances prevent its feasibility. The Chapter hosting District Convention shall be responsible for the logistics of the Reading Band. It shall be the District Council’s duty to provide a director and music with the assistance of the Host Chapter(s) if needed.

- Article VIII Section 2: clarifying that it is the duty of the host chapter to organize the logistics of the Auxiliary Clinic, but it is the District Council’s duty to provide a clinician.

Sigma, unless circumstances prevent its feasibility. The Chapter hosting District Convention shall be responsible for the logistics of the Auxiliary Clinic. It shall be the Sisters of the Southeast District,

At this time last year, I stood in front of you, the delegation, with very little prepared. All my thoughts were occupied with the future. I did not feel the need to say goodbye or thank you specifically or publicly, as I had more time with you. But this year, I have had no choice but to prepare a speech. Although this may sound melodramatic, I have to accept at this point that I will no longer be involved (as an active) in Tau Beta Sigma.

After the 2013 SED Convention at THE Florida State University (Go Noles), your SED Council hit the ground running preparing the Southeast District for the 2013 National Convention in Springfield, Massachusetts. I am so very proud to say we had 12 chapters represented at #NatCon2013, with 33 active members sitting for our district. We also had an enormous showing of alumni, enabling us as a district to form SEDAA (YAY, join it)! Although we did not end the Convention with the spirit stick, we did grow closer and stronger together as a district. The individuals in attendance at #NatCon2013 were able to give their opinions and input to the 2013-2014 SED Council as to what they needed and where they saw the Southeast District going this year. I hope those in attendance brought something back from #NatCon2013, I know I brought back no voice, and more passion for this district than I thought possible.

At #NatCon, each district president had to write a personal goal or mission statement for their year on Council. I am not going to share mine with you today, however the important part was this activity also led the current SED Council to create the official SED Mission Statement, voted on by the delegation this year—like a little while ago. I’d like to remind you of that Mission Statement now.

“The mission of the Southeast District of Tau Beta Sigma is to cultivate an aesthetic Musical environment, maintain Leadership through the support and encouragement of our sisters, enhance our collegiate bands and the community around us through Service, and develop a Sisterhood fueled by mutual respect and love for our organization in a positive environment which promotes strength, excellence, and diversity.”

The 2013-2014 SED Council made a slow start as we learned about each other and became friends, but through events like Florida Day (shout out to Zeta Psi), ITB Takeover (here in ATL), Winter Council (thanks Georgia Tech!), and DLC (IOTA LAMBDA), and of course, through activities like “Musical Rooms” (one of my better ideas), we have become not only colleagues, but friends.
I stated very early on to this Council that this year was a “foundation year” for us. I was not planning on adding a whole bunch of new, fancy programs and projects. I wanted to create a strong, reliable, and responsible name for the SED. Although this goal cannot exactly be measured or weighed, I am excited to share with you that this year, the Southeast District had a 97% success rate for National and District paperwork. Plain and simple, each paperwork deadline got better and better, culminating with 100% of our chapters turning in their SED Convention paperwork. I can share with you, without a doubt, the communication within the SED exponentially grew with the Chapter Mentorship Program and my phone… ringing off the hook. I promise, AT&T (or my parents) can tell you, the SED communicated this year. Although we had some road blocks along the way, I am very pleased with the work both the Council and, you, the Southeast District chapters contributed this year!

Personally, I have learned 2 great things from this sorority, and I have learned them in the largest and fiercest way to do so. Because you know, I don’t do anything halfway. The first thing I learned is that “No one can make you feel inferior without your consent.”(that is a quote by Eleanor Roosevelt)...and I learned that lesson from my own chapter. Then the second, I learned from you, the Southeast District. “In the world there are only two tragedies. One is not getting what one wants, and the other is getting it.” (quote by Oscar Wilde)

You see, the harsh truth I learned at Auburn is that I was different. I was not perfect. I unfortunately learned that lesson quickly and wholeheartedly, as it was pointed out to me frequently. But then, when I started attending SED and National events, I realized that yes, I was different, but that difference allowed me to achieve way more than ever anticipated. That difference allowed me to lead you. The final reality in this story, the moral if you will, is leaders are not perfect. Actually, being a leader is having the guts to share your struggles. Being a leader is uniting the troops and giving great pep talks (I am still working on that one). And finally, being a leader comes from within. You are the only one who can determine what sort of leader you are, where you might fit in… But I promise you this, you do belong. You are not inferior. You are worth it. And I will always support you.

As I leave you today, I am stepping away from an organization that has changed my life, in no small way at all. Unfortunately (and fortunately at the same time) for me, in August 2013 I graduated and made the move to Jacksonville, FL for “the real world.” The unfortunate part is not that I am growing up, but instead that the immediate Jacksonville area has no chapters of either Kappa Kappa Psi or Tau Beta Sigma. I suddenly, and for the first time in my life, felt very alone. My wonderful parents, who I am very close to (HEY MOM AND DAD), were a state away, something I have never experienced before; the friends I spent days, nights, and years with at Auburn were not around; and finally, you, my sisters and brothers, I did not even have you to see. This change was huge for me, I had to learn to depend on myself, to meet new people, and to go to a restaurant by myself (that part is still weird). But through this entire year, my love for this organization has only grown stronger by each day. Serving the Southeast District as your president has been both an honor and a privilege, that I still not sure why I was granted. Thank you so incredibly much for the opportunity to involve myself in your chapters and in your lives.
Here goes with the special shouts and memories:

1. To Beta Xi at the University of Florida: Thank you for being my home away from home since my move. In this strange place they call “Florida,” you are a semi-sane heaven in a frozen ITB-less tundra that is Jacksonville. I can honestly say, I think we have all learned too much about each other this year, but I wouldn’t have it any other way!

2. To Theta Lambda, my own chapter: Thank you for coming here this weekend, whether you are young or old in the bond, the Southeast District of Tau Beta Sigma will change your life- you only have to let it. Please introduce yourself to everyone around you, listen to them, for they will be your biggest asset as you move forth in your own Tau Beta Sigma story. Always and forever, War Damn Eagle.

2a. To Lauren Harrison: you have made me the proudest I have ever felt in my life so far. The feeling of you calling me and asking me for advice is something I cannot describe. You know exactly where my feelings of self-doubt come from and you are experiencing them now… yet you always stood by my side and wondered what the crazy people were talking about. I want you to know, you will find the same in me. Whatever happens after this moment, you have made me a better person. You are going to do great things in this sorority, and I am so very proud to know you.

3. To SEDAA: Past SED Council members and my mentors, you have been by my side cheering me on since before I even joined this magnanimous bond. I cannot wait to join you… like right now, as I step out of the active spotlight and into the alumni shadow. I hope we will share many years together of success for the Southeast District! Go SEDAA!

4. Crystal and Renee, I cannot imagine the Southeast District without you. Imagining a president that would not have you to call every day… and text during the day. And email in the middle of the night. They truly will not get the full and encompassing experience I have had. You have both shaped me as a sister and a person. I will never forget the advice you have given me. I have grown so much under your care. I love you so much, thank you for everything.

5. With that being said, to Stephen Burt and Lee Commander. You both have meant an extraordinary amount to me in the sisterhood. One of you inspired me to shoot for the stars in Tau Beta Sigma, and one of you helped me get there. I know you both will be excellent counselors. Never stop chasing your dreams, as that is the largest lesson I learned from you both.

6. To Christa Hall: I am writing this not knowing the outcome of elections… but if you are the new president: CONGRATULATIONS! I am so proud to see all that you accomplished this year. I wish you luck as you enter into your 2nd year on Council, the Tau Beta Sequel is always better than the original… best wishes for a great year! Please call me absolutely all the time to Tau Beta Talk. 😊

7. To Shannon Matthews: I am not sure how you felt following me as the VP of Special Projects this year, but I want you to know, your creativity is inspirational. I appreciate all of your hard work this year on Council and wish you many successes in your now “adult life.”

8. Ashley: I know this year was not easy for you, as a new member to Council. But thank you for always pushing forwards and doing your best, that is all I could ever have asked for. My biggest regret this year on Council is not spending as much time talking with you, as I feel like I missed out on a wonderful personality and passion. Best wishes as the Epsilon Chi Chapter President for this upcoming year!

9. Neil…. I hate your last name. Bleiweiss. You are so awkward and I love you. Every time I annoyed you, I mean called you, it never failed to put a smile on my face. My lack of Robert’s Rules Etiquette at the beginning of this year, and probably even now, was well-known following Lee Commander…But every time you were patient and willing to listen, even if sometimes you told me the wrong thing to say! Thank you so much for your hard work. You will never get rid of me.

10. Bridgette: We have been friends for a while now, back even before March for Music. But I cannot have imagined this year with another historian. You were an amazing addition to this council, as your cheerful and smiling face brought everyone constant joy. I cannot imagine trying to be a convention host and be a member of MY council at the same time… all the phone calls and emails, but you have done an amazing job- so thank you.

11. To Salvatore Parillo: We have been through a lot together these past 2 years and it has been an incredible ride. (not literally.) Ups and downs, you have stood by my side and been a huge support system. Without you to calm me down and listen to me yell into the phone, I do not know what I would have done. Your strength and perseverance should serve as an example to everyone in this room, as many would shy away from the responsibilities and tragedies you carry in life. Thank you for being an incredible role model and friend. I can only hope that from here on out, we stay as close as we are now.

12. To the Georgia Institute of Technology: You are the best. Of course, I cannot have a favorite chapter within the Southeast District, as we are all rockstars. But even before this year, I took every possible trip I could to ATL to see you. The way you work together and bond as sisters and brothers never seizes to amaze me. You all have so much passion and desire to better this organization, if only we let the smart people run things. You’d be up here and not me! For real though, the way you manage to organize SED Convention, ask me the same question 12 times (just to make sure), and still go to classes about rocket science and other smart things… it is outstanding. So thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for all of your hard work into this year’s convention. I am absolutely positive that if I had a different school as the host chapter, they would’ve started ignoring my phone calls. Thank you so much, Go Tech!

13. To my wonderful parents, the Baker Traveling Ukulele Show. I know I have not always been the easiest child. With playing percussion, going to Auburn, organizing March for Music, moving to Jacksonville, and finally, committing myself to the Southeast District as president, you have stood as role models and examples of how hard work and dedication outlasts anything else. Without your unwavering love for band, I am positive I would not be standing here today. Both your musical and ITB past welcomed me with open arms, and I found my second family. Thank you so much for sharing me with Tau Beta Sigma and the Southeast District. Thank you for years of support, whether I deserved it or not. I can only hope to one day make as much of an impact on my friends as you have.

14. Lastly, to the Southeast District, this year has meant more to me than you will ever know. I feel like everyone on Council ever says that in their Officer Report, but you truly cannot comprehend the feeling of having 7 states, nearly 40 chapters, and approximately… no I don’t know, a lot of sisters, placing their trust in you as a district officer, until you experience it. I hope to see most, no, ALL of you again very soon. As you know, I would never be able to leave sisters as fabulous as you. Although, my term is complete, I will never stop making myself available for you, should you ever need me. Thank you SED for a wonderful year, I look forward to many more after this!

Respectfully submitted,
Belinda Baker

Sisters of the Southeast,

This convention marks the end of my term as your SED VPM. It has been a great year, and I feel extremely honored to have been able to serve the district in this capacity. Thank you so much for allowing me the opportunity to be on council this year. This past year has grown my love for TBS to a new level. Working with the rest of the Council, and talking to chapters has opened my eyes even more to the wonderful things that TBS has to offer. I love hearing about what everyone is doing in their chapters. Seeing all of the posts about new candidates and new sisters always makes me excited and helps remind me of why I love this organization so much. I had a great time getting to meet more of you all at both Florida Day and DLC this year. Talking with sisters, sharing ideas, and bonding over our love for music makes me feel great. SED has also been awesome this year, and I would like to thank Georgia Tech for all of their hard work.

A lot has been accomplished this year, and I could not have done it without the support from all of you. The Membership Resource was my main goal for the year, and I am happy to say that I was able to compile and complete it within my term. Membership has always been very dear to me, and I wanted to be able to do something to help our members. This resource included basic information for chapters, like Robert’s Rules basics and Budget templates, as well as membership related resources. Going off of what sisters had said they would like to see, I included some recruitment tools, continuing membership education tools, and the national guide to membership. With the help of our awesome SED webmaster, I was also able to extend this resource to the Membership Database online. I hope that this resource will be helpful and useful for the district both now and in the future.

I want to thank a few people for making my time as a Council member so great. To my fellow council members, thank you so much for standing behind me and always being there for me. You all taught me that it doesn’t matter where we’re from, we all have common goals and interests and can be great friends. I am extremely thankful to have had the opportunity to work with all of you. To the councilors, thank you so much for all of your support and advice, I could not have gotten through this term without you. To my lovely Epsilon Alpha sisters past and present, first, go cocks! Second, thank you for your continued support and encouragement. You constantly make me want to strive to be and do more and are always ready to stand behind me no matter what. I would not be here today were it not for you, and you mean more to me than you can know. To my chapter sponsor, Sarah Lowery, thank you for your continued guidance and support. I am so thankful to have you as a sponsor and supporter. And last but not least, thank you SED. I am so thankful to you all for entrusting me with this job. I cannot wait to see what big things are in store for the SED in the coming years, and I hope to continue making this organization great alongside all of you. Thank you for encouraging me to be the best sister I can be, and to always reach for my goals.

“With my sisters, I am best.”

Sisters of the Southeast,

I can’t believe it has been a year since I stood before you all, reading my pledge of office as the new Vice President of Special Projects for the SED. At the time, I was standing beside people who I (mostly) barely knew, thinking to myself, we got this. Right? This year, serving as your Vice President of Special Projects has been one that I assure you I will never forget. Through it all; the rachetry of this council, the near all-nighters I pulled to get my various tasks done, and the opportunities to influence and be influenced by my lovely sisters of the SED, this has been one of the most stressful, and simultaneously, happiest years of my life. I got to spend a beautiful weekend in the Sunshine State at Florida Day and help ya’ll pie some council members in the face, all the while, raising money for a great cause! I got to run around Six Flags Atlanta at ITB takeover, just having a great time with my sisters and brothers which is always one of the biggest highlights of my summer. Then, there was National Convention. This was hands down, one of the coolest experiences of my life! Going on this trip was the farthest I have ever traveled from the Southeast, and I want to thank the SED for making it possible for me to go as your VPSP and experience such an awesome event take place. After a little time to settle in, we kicked off the Fall semester in October for Service in Music Month, this year with the intent to serve all ages. Then, I got down to work trying to promote the Concerto Competition, and, though it is still a work in progress, everything worked out great this year! We had an amazing winner, and I know it’s only going to grow and improve in the years to come. After the Concerto Competition was underway, I was at work brainstorming service projects to have at DLC and SED convention. I decided on having just one project, the 2014 Musical Trash=Treasure Drive, for both events, so that we had the ability to really make the project succeed. I feel confident that, if the future VPSP decides to continue this service project, we as a district could definitely take the drive to a whole new level and help better the chances of success for striving young musicians in the Southeast.

Seeing it all written down on paper, I wonder how managed to get it all done, and I can confidently say that my success is the direct reflection of just how good Belinda Baker was as our SED President. I don’t know how you do what you do, Belinda, But you’re amazing, and I want to thank you for putting up with my newbie mistakes and silly questions, and being a great support system anytime myself, or anyone in the district, needed one. To my other fellow council members, I am so grateful to get to know you all and experience the trials and success of this term with you. If I could do it all again, I don’t think I would have picked anybody else to take this plunge with!
To the councilors: Renee. You are such an inspirational person. I look up to you so much because you are so wise and so kind. Every time, this year, that I’ve seen you with your beautiful family and listened to you tell stories about them, I lit up with hope that one day I will be as good a mom as you are. I hope that we stay in touch so that I can continue to learn from you and be inspired by you.

Crystal, you have the uncanny ability to strip me of my nerves no matter what the situation is. I can be completely stressed out, you walk in the room, and poof, my fears and stresses dissolve. You’ve kept me cool and collected all year and especially this weekend, and I am so grateful for that. You make me feel like I am capable of anything, like I am special and important which really motivated me to do my best this year.

I’m so glad to have been able to experience having the both of you as my councilors.

To Epsilon Alpha,

What an honor to be part of such a great chapter! Go Cocks! But seriously, to my predecessors, my idols, Sarah, my sponsor, Stephen, my grand-big, Rachel, my VPM and Chris the person who convinced me to rush TBS all the way back in 2009, if it wasn’t for you all, those years ago, helping me grow and shape into the person I am today, I don’t know where I would be right now. You helped me see my path in this sorority and you gave me the confidence to push myself and become capable of anything I put my mind to. You’re my heroes and I mean that from the bottom of my heart. To my fellow EA sisters, those who crossed with me, and those who crossed last semester, it has been an honor to serve alongside you, and have you all as my family for these past 4 years and the many years to come. I am so grateful the support you continually gave me as I climbed up the ladder in EA on to the district level. Thank you. I can’t say it enough. To me, you are the greatest chapter in the Nation, and I love you!

To the SED. I can’t imagine being in a different district. Nobody would put up with my sass, and rachetry the way you all do. Being able to work alongside you all to better this district has truly been an honor. Thank you for putting your trust in me last April and thank you for being such a truly inspiring group of people to know and work with. We are such a diverse district, but somehow we all click like pieces to a puzzle. Not that many groups of people could pull that off like we do. There is so much truth in the statement SED Greater Bonds There’ll never because through it all, we mesh, and we’re the best.

It has been an honor to serve you all as your VPSP.

I remember the moment when receiving this position as if it was yesterday (although it was more like a year ago). I sat next to my chapter president, Ms. Monique McGowan, and shook in fear. I remember telling her I just became a member of Tau Beta Sigma in the Spring of 2012. How can I run for a district office? I remember her giving me inspirational words of encouragements. She really gave a whole lot of words, but I will of course sum it up for you today so that we will not be here until 12 AM tonight. She told me that we cannot control what year or when we become a part of something, however, what we strive to learn, and what we strive to accomplish, is totally within our control. She held my hand as it shook nervously awaiting my name to be called to speak in front of the delegation and Southeast District as a whole. As I stood before you, I remember feeling so nervous and scared. However, as I began to speak, it was as if your faces and all the power that this district had as a whole gave me the internal strength to stand before you and tell you how much I wanted to be a part of this district. It made me want to be a district officer for you because I knew how much I wanted to be there for not only the council, but for you, SED. Something miraculous happened, by the end of that weekend of April 5th – 7th, I became your SED Secretary. Of course, I received a lot of congratulations and hopeful words from a lot of you. I felt like I had really made an accomplishment and huge step for myself by receiving this position. After the convention, the succeeding council and the new Council of 2013-2014 went into a meeting room, and that was when reality hit… When Rebecca Snead, the 2012-2013 SED Secretary walked in with the Big Box and Little Box of SED for me, I thought I was in the twilight zone or something because I swore those were the largest boxes of papers, documents, and more that I had ever seen in my life. I knew the work was ready to start and I was ready to jump in and get it done.

The hardest milestone I had to accomplish was getting the SED Minutes together, and man, that took minute. Well actually a whole bunches of minutes. I thought I would never finish, because being the person that I am, I did not want to turn in anything mediocre, especially when it came to this district. However, with faith, long nights, and a little coffee along the way, I finished the 93-page document on time and was ready for my next project. I guess the somewhat easiest thing about that was I completed that in the Summer of 2013 and I had the time right after work to complete it. However, I never realized how hard it would be once my school year actually started how hard it would be to keep up: a nineteen credit hour class schedule, being a part of the Marching 101 band, Honda band/traveling band with late night schedules, and performances other than the regular scheduled football games, Praxis and PLT exams that are required for my degree, Epsilon Chi chapter meetings, working part time, keeping up with my family back home, and of course doing my part as a council member to the best of my abilities and keeping up with that on a daily basis. It seemed as if my time management and time in general was tested on a daily basis. However, the faces I stood before in that April 2013 was in my head at all times and kept me pushing. As time progressed, my schedule got even more pressed when the Marching 101 band was selected to go to Honda BOTBs 2014. My Eight to Five kicked in to keep me pushing with everything that I had to do. Somehow, SED. I made it through. If it were not for my chapter of Epsilon Chi, my mentee chapters, you all, and of course the fellow SED Council, I would have lost it. When times got really rough, where I could not finish up the application like how I had fought so hard for because of things just going wrong. SED, I felt like I was failing you. However, you still motivated me and kept me pushing. My drive to help my mentee chapters kept me pushing, my council kept me pushing, and other chapters outside of my mentee chapters kept me pushing. Basically, you, SED kept me alive and pushing.

Overall, with the strength given to me by all of the elements I was blessed to have, I completed a lot of things despite not having my initial plan of starting a mobile application for the district. In replacement of a mobile application with the intentions of updating you all on a daily basis, an active Instagram page was created which gave you all constant feeder of deadlines, updates, and more. The SHELLS was completed and sent out to the district twice in the Fall and in the Spring. Minutes were sent out after all Council meetings. The SED Survival Guide was made to where it gave you all a guide to this convention. Basically in the end, everything worked hard for paid off.

In conclusion, I want to thank my home chapter sis-TAU of Epsilon Chi for motivating me and getting me through this journey. I want to thank my fellow Council. Thank you so much for making me laugh, pushing me, motivating me, and encouraging me. At first it was hard because we did not know each other, however after a while, we got it together and made so many accomplishments happen for ourselves and this district. I could not ask to be a part of any other set of great individuals. And last but CERTAINLY not least. SED, I want to thank you. You gave little old Spring 2012 initiate who only had a year of experience in this organization a chance. You gave me the chance to prove myself. You motivated me on so many different levels. You got me out of my shell and pushed me to run and maintain this position. Thank you so much for everything and I wish the Council of 2014-2015 to keep pushing and striving to continue the efforts that has been put before them from past councils and reach milestones within themselves to set the bar of SED even higher! I know this district is full of so many great things and I am so excited to the future of excellence that district has in store. As we do in my home chapter, I am going to leave in love SED…but I am not going to say goodbye, but see you later, because you will definitely see me again. I love y’all too much. SED…Strength, Excellence, and Diversity. Thank you!

Sisters of the Southeast,

It is hard for me to give this officer report, as it is my last time on the Southeast District council. Serving as your treasurer for the past two years has been a monumental task, but extremely satisfying.

My most recent term began at the conclusion of SED Convention at THE Florida State University, with the newly formed council hitting the ground running. Belinda Baker had a game plan, and we worked are hardest to keep up with her. I am more than proud to have served my last term with these wonderful ladies and Neil by my side as the 2013-2014 SED Council.

The summer began with the council crashing at my house for Florida Day (hosted by the Zeta Psi chapter of Tau Beta Sigma and the Eta Sigma chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi; shameless plug) at the University of Central Florida. Here, we were able to have our first face-to-face council meeting, and we began to pave the way for this past academic year. With this, we chose our newest t-shirt to represent at National Convention in Springfield, MA. The winner of this t-shirt competition came from the Alpha Omega chapter, and is a great t-shirt. Our next obstacle to overcome was how to sell these while they were with me in Orlando, FL. With the help of our awesome Webmaster, Alfred Lanier from the Eta Xi chapter at Georgia Southern University, we were able to set up the SED Online Store through the SED Website (www.tbssed.org). With this, we were able to increase sales over the summer, and give our district an opportunity to purchase SED merchandise outside of district events (FL Day, DLC, SED Convention, etc…) Although I could not see this swarm of new t-shirts in Massachusetts this year, I heard it was a great turn out, which made me proud, all the way from the lovely country of Italy.

The end of the fall semester had me thinking of another fundraising opportunity: the SED Logo Competition. This was initiated by this council with the premise that it would be similar to the T-Shirt Competition; however, this would allow us to place the “newest look” of the SED on any object, not limiting us to just t-shirts. As with all new initiatives, it did not take off right away, but we did get submissions. The current council decided to leave this to the new council to pursue if they so wish.
Besides my fundraising endeavors, I am also charged with making sure that our council members get reimbursed for travel and the funding for our projects. I want to take this time to thank the council for being wonderful in making this process an easy and enjoyable task of this position.

Now that I have recapped my year, I must take this time to try and get a few tears worked up. This council has been a wonderful council this year, and I hope that everyone here realizes that. We worked our hardest this year, and we want to thank you for giving us this opportunity to work for you. I also want to thank you for letting me work with these wonderful ladies and Neil. This council is a wonderful example in music, but they are so much more to me.

In August, the academic year started off rough for me with the loss of my mother, my only living parent, and my only family member outside of the state of New York. I was contempluated with the decision of continuing to serve on the district council, or stepping down. I will always remember the night I called Belinda asking her what I should do, and just like every other time I have asked her this question, she always gave me just one answer, “I cannot decided that for you, only you can, but whatever you choose, I will support you no matter what.” I do not know how I would have made it through this entire year without Belinda in my life. People always say opposites complement each other, but if anyone knows both of us, we have plenty in common: we are both stubborn, which causes us to butt heads. However, I would not change anything about my friendship with Belinda because in the end, we will always come out as true friends for life. She has been my rock this term; she has always supported me in what I wanted to do. Never once have I called her with an idea, and she has not been on board (but she has not hesitated to give her input). Because of this, Belinda has shown me the true meaning of Sisterhood. I knew that when we started our first term together at my school the University of Central Florida, it would be one of the most memorable times in my life. I am so proud of her; I am proud of all the she has done for our district; I am proud that I was able to serve with her while she made great strides within our district, but I am most proud to call her not just my Sister, but my friend; my idol. Belinda, I will always look to you when I think of 8 to 5. Starting my district council term with Belinda was great, but serving at the same time and ending together will always be an honor and privilege.

To Renee and Crystal, I have always seen you as our SED Counselors. I was initiated during your first term (yes I am old), and I went on to originate the SED Historian position during your second term. I am proud to have known you since I have been a Sister, and even more proud to serve with you on council for many years. You have always been there for me, and made sure I am doing well. Your support in August of this past year was tremendous, and is always looked back on by myself when I need a boost of happiness. You are wonderful ladies. Renee, I know I will continue to see you in Orlando, since we both live there, but please do not be a stranger. Crystal, I will have to suck it up, and bear with the fact that we will see each other primarily at district events. However, I am making it mandatory that we stay in contact via phone/text, and girl you better always wear that tiara because I know I will. I love you.

To the Zeta Psi chapter, thank you so much for all your support throughout my times on council. You have always been my family in the state of Florida, but this past year has strengthened that bond even more. You put up with all my stress, my sass, and my life. You help me achieve my goals when things are not going as planned. You are the best support system I could ask for. You are an amazing chapter, and I am so proud to be a UCF Golden Knight (Lance ‘Em!). Thank you especially to Katie, Lindsay, and Nickaletta for all the extra time you have given me out of your life, all the comfort you have offered, being a shoulder to lean on, and an ear to listen (because we know I love to vent, rant, and just plain old talk).

Finally, I thank the Southeast District of Tau Beta Sigma. You have given me so many wonderful opportunities, and it has been an honor and privilege. I am so proud to say that I have served this ever-growing, diverse district. In the words of two very special SED Presidents I served under “We are the best damn district” (Lee Commander), and “whatever you choose, I will support you no matter what” (Belinda Baker).

Officer Report for Neil Bleiweiss
Parliamentarian

Sisters of the Southeast,

Over this past year, I’ve had the wonderful opportunity of serving you all as the Southeast District Parliamentarian. It has been an incredible experience working with my fellow District Officers to help ensure our success as a District over the year. I suppose if it weren’t for my chapter hosting DLC my candidate semester, then I wouldn’t be nearly as involved in the District as I am today…nor would I have had to make so many constitutional revisions. You think the Jurisdiction committee report is rough, that thing was my life.

Tau Beta Sigma has been such an amazing part of my collegiate career, and I will always keep it close to my heart throughout my life. My experiences as an Active member of the Sorority have helped me to develop a real appreciation and understanding of what I love about our organizations, and my time on District Council has definitely aided in that as well. I’ve been able to meet so many great individuals from chapters all around the Southeast, and it wouldn’t have been possible without these people I stand with here. Thank you all so much for this great year, it’s been so much fun, and I love you all very dearly.

To my Sisters of Alpha Omega, thankfully I still have a month left to spend with all of you, because if it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t be where I am today. You all have helped me grow into the person I am today, and have lent me your trust, confidence, and compassion. From the bottom of my heart, I love you all, and cannot begin to tell you how much I appreciate all that you do.

To the greatest District, this past year was amazing. I’ve met so many wonderful people sitting in this room here in front of me now, and I know you will all continue to make the future bright for our district. If there’s anything I’ve learned in Tau Beta Sigma, it’s that I know that no matter where I end up, I can always come back here to my home in the Southeast, and have an excellent family that I can be proud to call myself a part of. You all truly represent the fortitude and courage to see ideals and seize upon them, following them wherever they may lead you in life.

Sisters of the Southeast,

It’s hard to believe SED is here and I’m actually reading my officer report. It seems like only yesterday, I was being told, I was appointed as your Historian. This term has gone by so fast, and I’m sad to see it go.

I can’t explain how awesome it was to learn about the history of Tau Beta Sigma, like how the current Shells came to be or how Wava said our mascot should be a cockroach. Collecting and creating this year’s addition to the scrapbook was so much fun, however a little frustrating when the glue gun wouldn’t cooperate. The joy, love and passion for music, Sisterhood and service I saw in all the photos was outstanding and I am so blessed to have been given the opportunity to be a part of such an amazing organization. Not only was creating the scrapbook amazing, but putting together to first ever SED Banquet slideshow was awesome. It not only represents Sisters from the Southeast District, but also our Brothers as well. I hope that you love the slideshow as much as I do, and you’ll see it later tonight at banquet! :)

To my home chapter, Epsilon Theta, it has been an honor to serve for four years by your side. I think back to my candidate semester, and I realize how much I’ve changed since then. I know that I wouldn’t be half the person I am without the love and support from each and everyone of you. I love and thank each one of you for what you’ve done for me and I hope that I can at least give you guys back half of what you’ve given to me. I look forward to coming back and seeing the wonderful things you will continue to do for the Yellow Jacket Marching Band, Epsilon Theta and the Southeast District. Lastly, I would like to thank each and every one of you for your hard work and dedication to not only Tau Beta Sigma, but also your band programs. It has been my pleasure to serve as your 2013-2014 Southeast District Historian. What an honor it has truly been and I cannot be more thankful for this wonderful opportunity. Throughout this journey, I have met so many wonderful Sisters from all over the district, worked with some amazing council members and made so many friendships that will last a lifetime. It’s an honor to serve and it’s an even greater honor to serve with the amazing Southeast District. I hope all the best for you all and can’t wait to see what is left to come!

Greetings Sisters of the Southeast District,

It is with great pleasure that I report to you the quest of the Southeast District Counselor for the 2013-2014 school year.

Your newly elected council of Belinda, Christa, Shannon, Sal and Ashley left The Florida State University with excitement and high expectations. They began writing goals and making plans almost immediately. The first face-to-face District Council Meeting of the year, held at Florida Day, was a huge success. Your council accomplished a great amount in such a short weekend.

While that was wonderfully nostalgic, we had some other events on the horizon. Renee, Belinda and I were making plans to attend National District Leadership Conference and you, the SED, were gearing up to head to National Convention in Springfield, MA. To add to all of our excitement we got the great news that both the St. Augustine University and the Elizabeth City State University Colonies were underway!

Arriving in Massachusetts for DLC was exciting. I had never been to that portion of the Nation before and was looking forward to what it had to offer. Someone should have warned me that sweet tea was non-existent and the young man taking my order would be so confused about this thing that I called grits. He served me breakfast potatoes instead. Nonetheless I was ready to work. Attributed to fun and hard work, the days flew by fast. Lead by Nicole Sanchez, we were able to learn about the state of our sorority, the national budget standing, our district glories as well as its challenges. It was nice to work with other counselors and district presidents to learn other perspectives, new insights and great trends. We spent time with our Kappa Kappa Psi counterparts with a mission to plan our major events. When DLC was over, we had a clear vision of what was to come.

National DLC was time well spent but we were soon ready to welcome you to the NED. It was NatCon time. National Convention 2013 was one for the books. There were intriguing workshops, wonderful committees and lots of decisions made by you, the active members. Take a look through the National minutes. You are the ones who raised your placards and helped to shape the future of our sorority. I was able to support our efforts by advising the National Ways and Means Committee and co-presenting with MWD counselor Adrienne, with a workshop entitled “Got Guard?” This convention was significant also in the fact that it was during these days that we remembered our loving founder. Together with every district of Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi, we showed just how much she impacted, her family, the world of band music and of course our bonded organizations.

The fall met us with a whirlwind. Your council started to chisel away at the goals that were set back in the spring in order to ensure that you had the best support possible. They chose to add Neil and Bridgette to the council to keep us grounded and on track and to capture all that was going on in the world of band service. While you all stood in the heat during the dead of summer as it turned into frigid night approaching winter, your council, produced Shells articles, chose DLC and Eighth Note hosts, organized concerto competitions, created data bases, evaluated financial standings, all while continuing to serve their college bands just like you. They discussed and helped to tweak MEP’s, guided you through the OMRS, supported your fall events and continued to be examples of exemplary sisters and scholars. The fall semester was surely a tough one to balance with all that is expected but we all came out on top and continued into the spring semester.

At the start of the spring semester we traveled to Atlanta, Georgia for our Joint Winter Council Meeting with the SED KKPsi Council and the host chapters at Georgia Tech. The discussion planning for the upcoming district events was immense. With only one or two YouTube breaks the council pressed forward with the objective to give you all that you could ever imagine. The brothers and sisters at Tech were extremely gracious hosts and their hospitality was tremendously appreciated. The next weekend, we traveled back to Atlanta for the Honda Battle of the Bands. It was great watching the pageantry of the bands that were selected to go. Although this is not an official event of the SED, it sure feels like it. The way that so many of you come to support the members of the bond and enjoy 4 hours of band music is astonishing. Even if you do not attend a Historically Black College or University, please don’t sell yourself short. Make plans to travel to Atlanta next year.

As we moved into February we were headed to District Leadership Conference hosted by the chapters at University of North Carolina Chapel Hill. This conference was well worth the planning. Your attendance was impressive. For the location to be so polarized you came, you shared and my hope is that you found something useful for your chapters and band programs. I enjoyed be able to co-present with Kevin Dianna, alumni member of Kappa Kappa Psi about “Getting To Know You Better.” I was happy to say that we, the Southeast District, were the first to Skype with our National Historian and Board of Trustees Member as she graced us with her seemingly endless wealth of knowledge.

One great milestone for the Southeast District since DLC was the announcement of the University of South Florida Colony starting their journey into our sisterhood. Congratulations USF, we look forward to welcoming you into our bond.

We have arrived to the 2014 Southeast District Convention. Whether you are a first time attendee for a 4th time attendee, whether you are a chapter secretary or the National President, hopefully you have an appreciation for the work and dedication of your council and host chapters.

On that note of appreciation, I will give mine.

To the National Councils of the last 3 bienniums, thank you. Kimbi called and said that I was being extended an opportunity to work in a capacity that I had never dreamed. She and Dollie chose me, someone that no one knew. I didn’t have all of the answers and I didn’t know where to start. I was just a sister who had a little experience and wanted to give of myself and my time. Thank you for giving me a chance. I hope that you are pleased and that I have made you proud.

To My Past Councils, you each are an amazing group of young professionals. The experiences that we have shared have been beyond belief. If I had of been anything like you all when I was 20 years old, I can only imagine the possibilities of what I could have become. Watching you grow into your respective fields gives me joy and excitement. You are my own children in some special way.

To LaShika, Stephen, Katie, Rachel, Lee and Belinda thank you for teaching me about the life of a counselor. Each of you given me lessons to help prepare me for the next president. I don’t think I was ever really prepared, but I loved it anyway. I expect great things from each of you and look forward to one of you leading this great organization that we know as Tau Beta Sigma.

Renee, there are absolutely no words. You are an amazing teacher, musician, sister, wife and mother. You are a renaissance woman who can do it all and in my eyes, knows it all. You have no idea how many times I have said “Uhhhh….Have you asked Renee?” You have been a wonderful balance for all that I am in this sorority. I don’t believe that I could have picked a better cohort if I had the opportunity. Ying and Yang, Ebony and Ivory, Ren and Stimpy, I have no idea what they called us, but it has been and absolutely pleasure serving with you. Thank you for agreeing to be my partner and going for the ride of a lifetime with me. You are irreplaceable.

To the Alpha Omega Chapter at The Florida State University, thank you for your support, enthusiasm and numerous invitations. A trip to Tallahassee was never complete without a Sonny’s stop. Your choice to make me one of your own was one of the most humbling experiences that I have ever had. Diamond Rose Forever!

To the Ladies who reside on Normal’s Hill, you exemplify my heart walking around in human form. I want to thank you, my chapter, Theta Iota, who proudly serves the band program at Alabama A&M University. You have always been here for the last 6 years. You are one of the things that has been constant through this journey. National Councils, District Councils and Governors have changed, but you continue to wear the maroon and white and when I look across the room, you are always there. I have watched you grow and you make me proud every time that I see you. To the 12 young ladies who have entered this great sisterhood that we call Theta Iota, I am excited for the future that have and greatness that you accomplish. Theta Iota continue in your service at Dear AMU, you know that I will be watching. In case you didn’t know you mean the world to me and I love you.

There is yet one last group that I would be remised if I did not mention. That is you Southeast District of Tau Beta Sigma. Thank you for allowing me to operate as a servant leader for the seven states that we call home. Thank you for entrusting me with your concerns, your questions and your visions. Thank you for working with me, as we learned and grew together, to serve the bands on our illustrious campuses. Thank you for allowing me to use my voice, my thoughts, and knowledge to guide, support, and carry you when needed. Most of all I want to thank you for calling me confidant, problem solver, resource, counselor, and most of all sister. I am encouraged as I leave this post. I know that you are in good hands. I like to believe that some of my zeal and passion for this great organization will continue through Stephen and Lee, but I am positive that it will continue through each of you. So continue in Synergy, Enthusiasm, and Diligence. Move forward with Scholarship, Engagement and Determination. Be an example of how to be Sensational, Eminent and Deliberate. Show yourselves and every other district who you are and why you are paramount. You are the SED, exemplifying Strength, Excellence, and Diversity!

My Dear Sisters of the Southeast,

Each year I come stand in front of you and give a "state of the Southeast District" message, our year, and our successes. By now you've heard many great things from our other officer reports. This time, I stand in front of you after serving 6 years watching the district grow. There's no way I could put all my thoughts into words or have time to stand here and tell you it all, but I'll sure express how proud I am!

I've watched some pretty wonderful things happen through the past 6 years. Each council had their growing pains which is necessary to improve as leaders and to learn to collaborate with others who have a different perspective. I've watched as every single council member came in and built up and refined what came before them to enhance the office, council, and SED. Just this alone created more unity and balance to focus on the SED's vision and mission. As a district you're cultivating music, encouraging leadership, serving collegiate bands and expanding your service to the community, and creating a sisterhood that lasts a lifetime!

From year to year, new ideas bloomed at your themed District Leadership Conferences and SED Conventions that many of you have added into your individual chapters such as: improved budgeting, ideas to enhance musicality, additional officers or chairs to increase leadership opportunities and talent, adding social aspect to service, and unique and fun ways to celebrate and promote Tau Beta Sigma to others!

I see tremendous growth with new chapters and more on the horizon! I see how you continually work harder to get the required paperwork in on time, and more diligent as the online system rolled out. I see members reaching out asking for help and giving of their time. I hope to see more of it as numbers increase and you all reach further into the district to meet the needs of bands and communities across the southeast. I see individual chapters taking more interest in their written membership education process and creating a document that is more cohesive and user friendly for future members. We had over 30 MEP's turned in this year. Many chapters have implemented additions making their MEP more organized and. From the 11 I received about 4 years ago has been a great improvement! Well done!

I have no doubt that this district will hit 100% on paperwork, dues, and MEP's within the next 2 years. I expect you to apply for those National Awards to show off the SED! Attend National Convention 2015 -it's an amazing experience that opens your eyes and energizes members with ideas!
Don't forget those district survey's the council implements many of your ideas from year to year during planning of events and activities. I also can't wait to see where your next council and our incoming counselors will do to get you there and beyond!

Stephen and Lee, I'm humbled to see you take on the reins to guide our beloved Southeast. All the years I've known you both I've seen great things! To know that you served with Crystal and I and you want to continue your own leadership in Tau Beta Sigma is a joyful and heartfelt feeling!

To the council -without getting too emotional up here, I hope I've given you inspiration as much as you have me. I love seeing the difference of opinions, the unique quirks, and the amazing ideas that come from you. In ( kinda) one word, what you mean to me: Belinda -Nonstop, Christi -Cheerful, Shannon -Thoughtful, Sal -Dedicated, Ashley -Spirited, Neil -Precise, and Bridgette I can't help but to say -jacketless.

To my Zeta Psi chapter (GO Knights!) -new and old, you may not know my history but you're the chapter that created this crazy love I have for Tau Beta Sigma! All that you do supporting each other, going above and beyond for music, and being your crazy selves is so special to me.

Past SED Counselors who inspired me to be who I am to serve you, our members: Barbara Kelly-Hursey, Cindy Lasso, and Illiana, thank you for serving and your dedication to TBS.

Thank you to Past and Present National Officers for allowing me to serve you!

Crystal, I still remember my phone call from Kimbi! When Kimbi congratulated me and informed me that we would work together I already felt honored to get to work with you. We've always worked together for our students and I've admired your calm counseling!

I look back and can't believe it's been 6 years. I can't believe I've literally grown up with you all. Yes, grown up. As a professional, wife, and mother of 3 -we'll say I've grown up!

Don't worry. My sons and daughter already asked me "Mom, if you're no longer a counselor does that mean we don't get to go to those conventions anymore" -no way, I'm Tau Beta Sigma for Life! I have a suspicious feeling I have some future Tau Beta Sigma's living in my house! :)

One more shout out: to my Husband, Charley, he's been such an awesome support and encouragement since the very beginning of my TBS career.

It is an honor to serve you as your counselor. Forever In Love and Music -SED Strength-Excellence-Diversity!

Respectfully Submitted with Love,
