Committee Advisors:
Stephen Burt
Epsilon Alpha, Southeast District Counselor

Charges to Committee:
1. Review the report from the 2014 Joint Action Committee. Analyze the bid guidelines document, as required by the Tau Beta Sigma SED Operations Manual.
2. Interview all Convention host bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
3. Discuss ways to improve SED Convention.
4. Discuss ways to improve joint relations at SED Convention.
5. If necessary, interview Eighth Note bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
6. Analyze and discuss the progress of the Eighth Note, based on the new criteria presented in the 2015 year.
7. Evaluate the reading band and auxiliary clinic as implemented in 2015.
8. For the Eighth Note, strongly encourage one print submission at SED Convention in addition to the rolling online submissions.
9. Explore the possibility of jazz reading band and smaller chamber ensembles additions for Reading Band
10. Consider a Joint social on Friday, possibly being the addition of reading bands or other ensembles
11. Explore the possibility of the creation of a joint governing document for voting and discussion purposes

Implementation of Charges:
1. Reviewed the report from the 2014 Joint Action Committee. Analyzed the bid guidelines document, as required by the Tau Beta Sigma SED Operations Manual.
2. Interviewed all Convention host bidders and presented a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.
3. Discussed ways to improve SED Convention, including the incorporation of more committee time and synchronized committee schedules.
4. Discussed ways to improve joint relations at SED Convention, including the consideration of a joint social and creating more opportunities for interaction between organizations.
5. No chapters put in a bid for the Eighth Note, so there is no slate to present to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.

6. Analyzed and discussed the progress of the Eighth Note, based on the new criteria presented in the 2015 year. Discussed the relevance and necessity of the Eighth Note in its current format and made suggestions for improvements. Recommended a move away from print/written media and toward social/visual media, consistent with contemporary trends and technologies. Suggested an ad hoc committee for the District Council with the intent for this project to be long-term. The recommended changes would allow the districts to move away from chapter hosts and the costs and burdens incurred therein and toward a Council-based and implemented solution.

7. We were unable to evaluate the reading band and auxiliary clinic as implemented in 2015 because those events took place after the committee meeting blocks were completed.

8. The Eighth Note host was strongly encouraged to provide one print submission at SED convention in addition to the rolling online submissions. We discussed ways to encourage Eighth Note participation including possible print submissions at SED, rolling online submissions, and a heavier social media presence.

9. Discussed the possibility of jazz reading band and smaller chamber ensembles as additions for reading band, but recommended that the current focus remain on improving current reading band participation.

10. Considered a joint social on Friday, possibly including the addition of reading bands or other ensembles. Discussed having an ongoing joint social event that provides opportunities for socialization, ensemble performances (potentially including the runners up for the Tau Beta Sigma Concerto Competition), and light refreshments.

11. Explored the possibility of the creation of a joint governing document for voting and discussion purposes. Recommended the creation of a non-binding joint resolution of agreement acting as a guideline for voting and discussion purposes.

Charges to the 2015 Committee on Joint Actions:

Charges to the 2016 Joint Action Committee:

2. Interview all Convention host bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.

3. Discuss ways to improve SED Convention.

4. Discuss ways to improve joint relations at SED Convention.

5. If necessary, interview Eighth Note bidders and present a slate to the joint delegation at the closing Joint Session.

6. Analyze and discuss the progress of the Eighth Note, based on the new criteria presented in the 2015 year.
7. Review Eighth Note presentation from District Council or appropriate committee and evaluate new methods.
8. Evaluate the reading band and auxiliary clinic as implemented in 2016.
9. Discuss ways to encourage participation in the bid submission process.

Charges to the District Council of Tau Beta Sigma:
1. Create a non-binding joint resolution of agreement acting as a guideline for voting and discussion purposes.
2. Create an ad-hoc committee at the district level for the purpose of evaluating the Eighth Note and implementing a platform to facilitate the movement away from a print-based publication and toward a social/visual medium. Implement a move from hosting at the chapter level to district level responsibility.
3. Present to the 2016 Joint Action Committee on Eighth Note changes and future progress.
4. Ensure that scheduled committee meetings for SED Convention line up between Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma so that Joint Action Committee may maximize their meeting times. Additionally, consider holding at least one committee session occurring subsequently after the completion of reading band and auxiliary clinic so that the 2016 Joint Action Committee will be able to evaluate them.
5. Consider synchronizing more events between Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma at SED Convention to continue to improve joint relations.

Membership Committee Report

Committee Chair:
Philip Haugh
Beta Tau, University of Mississippi

Committee Advisors:
Belinda Baker – Theta Lambda, 2013-2014 Southeast District President and Kathryn Kelly, MD - Eta Delta, National Vice President for Colonization and Membership

Charges to Committee:
1. Review the 2014 Committee on Membership report.
2. Review the expansion and effectiveness of the Membership Resource Database and propose helpful modifications and additions to the Database.
3. Review the effectiveness of communication between the District and Chapter VPMs and suggest possible ways to improve this communication.

Implementation of Charges:
1. Review the 2014 Committee on Membership report.
2. Review the expansion and effectiveness of the Membership Resource Database and propose helpful modifications and additions to the Database.
   a. Purpose of the resource database
      i. To provide sisters with the resources necessary to create an environment of learning with their membership candidates and current sisters
      ii. Contains resources collected from chapters, districts, national headquarters for the use in chapter functions, continuing education, membership processes, etc.
   b. This past year, the council tried to get feedback on the database
      i. Nothing was done with it though because of low participation
   c. Is it even needed? Is it useful?
      i. It COULD BE very helpful to struggling chapters
      ii. However, many people/chapters are not aware of it
   d. Promotion of the Membership Resource Database
      i. Chapters are more likely to utilize it if they are presented with the information rather than having to hunt it down
      ii. Monthly reminders about the Membership Resource Database and updates through social media, email, any/every means possible
      iii. Offering some kind of recognition/incentives for contributing to database
         1. Facebook/Twitter shout out
         2. Certificate
      iv. Recognition through mentoring/visiting chapters
1. Skype

e. Accessibility
        i. Google Drive
            1. Make it a living document rather than stagnant
            2. Chapters are able to upload their documents, receive comments from SED VPM and other chapters.
            3. Documents could be uploaded at each end of the school year to the website, so the Google Drive would make the documents editable.
            4. At the conclusion of the year, they would be finalized and added to the database.

f. What about continuing education?
        i. The guide to membership education is the cheat sheet for this
        ii. Has a resource for continuing education
        iii. Formulating a PowerPoint as another resource for continuing education

3. Review the effectiveness of communication between the District and Chapter VPMs and suggest possible ways to improve this communication.

a. Revise Position of District VPM
        i. Plan DLC
            1. Suggested that this job be shared with VPSP
            2. VPM planning DLC is a good idea because this person should be reaching out to chapters/colonies anyways

b. Colonies/”struggling chapters” (identified as chapters with under 7 members) do not feel like there was someone who they could reach out to in the SED Council
           i. Suggestion of contacting colonies and “struggling chapters” once a month via skype, video chat, phone conference call, etc to update the district and national council on their status
           ii. Identifying struggling chapters should be more of a counselor duty and National Council duty. Working with those chapters should be the VPM.
           iii. Suggestion of looking at chapters who are in sharp decline of membership rather than place a number on “struggling”
           iv. Small chapters don’t feel like they can make a difference at their schools, they feel more like a colony vs an active chapter
                1. How do we recruit with 2 people?
                2. Give a bid to people who show certain qualities that would make good members

v. Diversity
    1. Looking for people to serve the band rather than creating a more social environment.
    2. Doing things that are diverse (rushes, socials, etc). Each person from your chapter’s culture of TBS does not have to be the exact same.
    3. Stigma of the word sorority (girl vs boy and recruitment)

Charges to the 2016 Committee on Membership:

1. Review the 2015 Committee on Membership report.
2. Review the expansion and effectiveness of the Membership Resource Database and propose helpful modifications and additions to the Database. If the Membership Resource Database is not viewed as effective, consider eliminating it as a resource.
3. Review the effectiveness of communication between the District and Chapter VPMs and suggest possible ways to improve this communication.
4. Evaluate the VPM and the planning of DLC and discuss possible changes or improvements.

Charges to the 2015-2016 Southeast District Vice President of Membership:

1. The VPM should work to improve the Membership Resource Database. (Suggestions: Sending out links to promote submissions, creating a Google Doc for chapters to submit to and comment on, creating a contest to promote submissions, creating a District Youtube channel for video submissions)
2. The VPM should create an incentivized contest to encourage submissions to the Membership Resource Database.
3. The VPM should work with the National VPCM to ensure the dissemination of information of available resources (e.g. National Guide to Membership Education)
4. The VPM should work with National Headquarters and Aaron Moore to create email addresses for each chapter in the SED. (e.g. betatau@tbsigma.org)

Sisters of the Southeast,

This convention marks the end of my term as your SED President and as a member of your district Council in general. It has been a great year, and I feel extremely honored to have been able to serve the district in this capacity. The past two years on Council have been some of the best that I could have imagined, and I want to thank you so much for allowing me the opportunity to be on council these two years. Working with the Council this year, as well as the other chapters in the SED has really opened my eyes even further to everything the TBS has to offer. Seeing all of you at Florida Day and DLC made me excited for the future of the District and what all is to come. Talking with sisters, sharing ideas, and bonding over our love for music makes me love TBS even more. SED has also been awesome this year, and I would like to thank Georgia and Spelman for all of their hard work!

The year started for me after the 2014 SED Convention at Georgia Tech, and I was excited to begin planning for this year. After appointing Zach and Julie as Parliamentarian and Historian, the Council started the year off with a meeting at Florida Day to plan out all of our goals for the term. I was so proud to see the passion and drive they each had, and the great ideas that they had to bring to the table. After Florida Day, I had the wonderful opportunity to go to Stillwater, OK to meet with the other District Presidents and learn a little bit more about convention planning. This was a great opportunity for me to learn about the other districts and how they operate, and in turn the strengths that we possess as the SED. In addition to these meetings, we were able to see the unveiling of the Wava Memorial at headquarters, and that is a memory that I will always cherish.

The 2014-2015 SED Council had a lot to learn about each other and how to work effectively, but as we spent more time together at events like Florida Day (thanks Zeta Psi), Winter Council (thanks UGA) and DLC (Shoutout to Troy), we learned more about each other and became friends as well as colleagues.

Many things have happened this year, and I would like to thank you all for your support. We were able to continue with the chapter mentorship program, and we able to work on getting paperwork in on time. Although we did not have the best start with paperwork, we got much better with the deadlines as the year progressed, even trying to figure out how to implement a District Deadline prior to the National Deadline in order to encourage paperwork completion. This seemed to work for us, and I hope to see it continue in the future. We have started to work on a plan to help with getting more people on the listserv, and I am confident that the next President will be able to make this project a reality.

Today not only marks the ending of my time in an SED officer role, but also my time as an active sister in this sorority. This organization has given me so much, and I can say beyond a shadow of a doubt that I would not be who I am today without its influence. The 8 and 5 are always in the back of my mind, and in everything that I do I am constantly reminded of the values and lessons I have learned in this organization. The memories I have made and the people I have met will stick with me for the rest of my life, and I am so incredibly thankful for the opportunities that you all have given me to be involved in the Southeast District.

Before I get to sentimental, I want to thank a few people for making my time as a Council member so great.

1. To my Epsilon Alpha sisters past and present, first, go cocks! Second, as my home chapter you guys have no idea how much your constant support has helped me throughout my term. Your unwavering encouragement means more than you know. I am so grateful for all of you that traveled here today (especially the new sisters, shoutout to Spring ’15!). Thanks for making my last SED as an active a great one. Go #EpsAlph!

2. To Allison York and Kelley McMurphy. Words cannot describe how much you have helped me this year. Be it personal things, school, or TBS, you are always there, and I am so thankful to have a sister like you. I would not have gotten through this without you. You always push me to be better, and I appreciate that. Great things are in store for you!

3. To Sarah Lowery, thank you for everything you have done for me. You have showed me how to still be involved and committed to the organization as an Alumni. You have also helped me learn many valuable lessons, and taught me how to deal with whatever comes my way in a calm and professional manner. I would not be who I am in this organization without your guidance, and for that I thank you.

4. To Rachel Kerley, I honestly would not even be in this organization were it not for you. You inspired me to try and join this wonderful bond, and I am so glad that you did. Thank you for your constant encouragement and support. Thank you for pushing me to run and for always being there when I need an ear or a shoulder. I don’t know how I would have made it this far without you, and I am so thankful for your friendship.

5. Belinda and Neil: Thank you both for being here for me this year. You both have continued to support me, even though you are not on council this year and have no obligation to. Thanks for that. Belinda, thank you for helping me with the craziness of convention prep and ensuring that I do not go crazy.

6. To Lee Commander and Stephen Burt, thank you for everything. You two have been there to answer my crazy questions and deal with my antics this term, and I will always be grateful for that. To Lee, thank you for always being there when I need to talk things out. Thanks for lightening the mood with your sassy comments as well. I’m sorry that we never made it to Gigi’s. To Stephen, thanks for your knowledge and willingness to answer me no matter the time. I know that this year was a transition for both of you, and I think you both handled it well. I am so grateful that

7. To Will, your honesty is refreshing. I admire that you are never afraid to assert your opinion, regardless of if it is the popular opinion or not.

8. To Madeleine, you are a superstar. I am constantly in awe of your drive and passion. You have so many good ideas and creative ways of thinking, and you accomplish whatever you set your mind to. You have inspired me to try harder and be a better person. Wherever life takes you I know that you will be amazing, and I cannot wait to see where you end up!

9. Allison, we knew each other before Council, and I am so glad that we had the opportunity to get to know each other better and become friends this year. You are always quick to laugh, and you always bring a fresh opinion. It is very refreshing. I’m so glad you share my delirious amusement of dancing animals at CVS at 3 in the morning and don’t judge me for it. Thanks for everything you’ve done!

10. Carolyn, we were friends before all of this, and I have always looked up to you. I am so thankful for your endless knowledge of all things TBS and SED. You have been such a great help this year, and I do not know what I would have done without you on Council. You always seem calm and collected and you have a plan, thank you for your help this year. I’m sure we will be friends for years to come.

11. Zach, I am so glad that we met and became friends this year. You always respond to my sass with a snarky comment and I am thankful that you can lighten the mood when we need it yet know when to be business oriented. I am happy that I found someone to work with that loves Robert’s Rules like I do, and thanks for putting up with my craziness.

12. Julie, you provided a different view and opinion in a lot of cases, and I am so thankful for that. Thank you for your constant input and willingness to help out. You always make me laugh with your stories, and you made my time on Council a joy. Thanks for introducing me to more fandom related things, even if they were awful. Good luck with everything!

And last but not least, thank you SED. I am so thankful to you all for entrusting me with this job. I cannot wait to see what big things are in store for the SED in the coming years, and I hope to continue making this organization great alongside all of you. Thank you for encouraging me to be the best sister I can be, and to always reach for my goals.

“With my sisters, I am best.”

Sisters and Brothers of the Southeast District of Tau Beta Sigma,

Once more, we find ourselves together at this convention, not just 41 chapters or seven states, but one district, and part of one sorority.

This term saw us welcome the Iota Chi chapter, from the University of South Florida, to the sisterhood. Our district continues to expand, with colonies at Miles College and Kennesaw State University.

During my term, I had the opportunity to speak to a number of sisters from across the district, primarily about membership-related issues, but about many other things as well. Getting to connect with so many people on an individual level is a truly rewarding experience, and one I hope you all take full advantage of, at this and other conventions, as well as in your daily lives.

As with many things, this sorority is, to large extent, what you make of it. So I urge you to make the most of your time in college, of your time as Active sisters and brothers in Tau Beta Sigma. Become more involved in your chapter; run for office, serve as a committee head, organize a project. You can certainly succeed, for you are a sister of this sorority. Talk to sisters from other chapters, to learn how their experiences differ from yours. Speak with your alumni, to understand the unique history of your respective chapters. Reach out to your district council, for any help you might need or with any questions you may have. We come from many different places, and have a thousand different destinations, but we are all part of one sisterhood.

I would like to thank the outgoing district council, the district counselors, my home chapter of Gamma Epsilon, and all of you, for this opportunity. It truly was an honor.

Respectfully submitted,

Will Smith
2014-2015 Southeast District Vice President of Membership
Gamma Epsilon, University of Miami
Vice President of Special Projects, Madeleine Hood

Wow....I can't believe my term as Vice President of Special Projects is now coming to an end. I won't make this speech long, but just know that my experience in having this position within the southeast was one not to forget.

Through this experience I have met incredible, so many incredible people, learned so much about Tau Beta Sigma, & have built an amazing relationship with my fellow sisters.

To Christa, thank you for your patience with us all year and kudos to you finishing your term as president. I cannot think of anyone else within the southeast district that could have done what you have done all year.

To Allison, you're freaking awesome dude. Thank you for being the positive sister that you are. You my girl!

To Zach, my out of state compadre. Whenever we had to travel, you and I always had the extra extra-long car drives, but that's alright. We felt each other's struggle in being tired, but being good ol' you, you ALWAYS were positive and full of jokes after jokes after jokes. You were also one of my two roommates on one of our traveling trips. We shared the same roll of toilet paper. We got history now sister, so you're stuck with me after this.

Julie.....girl! I just love your personality, thoughts, and ideas. I love your passion for not only TBS, but your school, your major Women Studies. You go hard for everything that is in your life. Plus I love your random snaps you send to me :) please do not ever change, keep being you.

Lee & Stephen......oh Lee & Stephen......about zem cookies and zem cupcakes lol. Lee, thank you for introducing Pentatonix in my life. Their rendition of Let it Go is definitely now on my Most played songs on my Itunes list. Besides your taste of great music, I admire your knowledge of Tau Beta Sigma. I swear you know everything. I felt as if this year I was in Tau Beta Sigma 101 because I learned SO MUCH from you about this amazing sisterhood. Thank you for always being patient with my 101 questions and supporting me throughout this journey.

Stephen, thank you for everything as well. Your supportive words have really helped me at some very, very difficult times during this past year. THANK YOU for not giving up on me.

You both are incredibly amazing. Kudos to you guys on completing your first year as counselors. The SED is very lucky to have you BOTH.

Last but certainly not least, my home girl, confidant Carolyn. Carolyn, we have had some pretty AMAZING conversations, whether it was discussing TBS, Peace Corps, college, our schools, family, LIFE! You are an amazing individual and I just thank you thank you. You've been there for me when times got very stressful this year. I appreciate all of the advice and pointers you have given me. I love your patience and motherly love to everyone. I will miss you so much. I love you sister, and TRUST, we are definitely gonna party together at Honda Battle of the Bands next year :)

In addition to the council, I have to thank God, my mother, and my best friends and sisters who know who they are. Thank you for your support throughout this entire journey. You all have had my back this year. Between handling marching band season, additional performances, practices, senior year, graduating this May, an internship, and holding president of our chapter for a second year.....oh man..... I thank you guys so much for your support and push to keep me going and moving forward. I love ya'll :)

To the southeast district. I thank you all for allowing me to serve as your Southeast District Vice President of Special Projects. I have gained so much experience and knowledge. I swear there's nothing like the SED. We truly are one of a kind. I am excited to see the future leaders emerge from this district and take the SED to new levels.

I thank you all again, so proud of everyone over this weekend. To the new council, I know you guys will do great and amazing things! Yes it will be hard at times, but serving on this council will be one of the best experiences of your life.

I don't know any catchy ways to end this report so! I love you all. If you ever need anything, I'm one phone call away.

Musically Yours and Respectfully submitted,

Madeleine Hood
2014-2015 Southeast District Vice President of Special Projects

To the Southeast District,

It has been a privilege granted, and an honor bestowed to have served as your Southeast District Secretary for the past year. I have truly cherished this opportunity to reach beyond my chapter, and give back to this organization, which will forever remain in my heart. Since the day I was initiated, I have always had high hopes and sometimes unrealistic goals for what I have wanted to accomplish for the sorority. And after being elected, I wanted to make the SED proud.

Unfortunately, I did not achieve all of the goals I set out to do for the District. Nonetheless, I am proud to turn over what I have achieved, and wish our next Secretary “Good luck, and invest in some wrist braces”. After a rocky start with editing the 2014 Convention Minutes, I had the opportunity to travel to Florida Day, where I not only spent time with Zeta Psi and Eta Sigma, but I REALLY got to know the rest of my council. The encouragement I received from all of these individuals throughout our first meeting was immeasurable, and I would not have been able to move forward without you all.

After completing the 2014 Convention minutes in the Fall, tragedy struck. A losing Florida Gators football season. (And yes, it is a big deal) However, I somehow managed to pull together a Fall edition of SHELLS, with some gentle encouragement from Lee and Stephen. (I seriously can’t emphasize enough, how supportive this council has been). Through however many rainy games I suffered through, I knew I still had Winter Council to look forward to.

And it was worth it. Our Winter Council meeting was incredibly successful! Under the leadership of Christa, we finalized many of the details for what we wanted SED and DLC to become. Combined with the professionalism and hospitality showed to the Council by the brothers of Kappa Mu, I knew then that this convention would be special.

Fast forward to DLC, where I had not only the opportunity to give a workshop, but to also meet two of my mentor chapter presidents. (I’m looking at you Mallory and Franchestia). Epsilon Xi and Zeta Upsilon were wonderful host chapters, and I certainly hope to see a greater District presence from both of you in the future. At the conclusion of DLC, I also came up with perhaps my craziest idea yet. Since I had almost nothing planned for my Spring Break (which was the following week), why not visit as many chapters as I can?

And so began my arduous trek around Alabama, Florida, South Caroline, but mostly Georgia. I started by visiting Theta Lambda’s Second Degree ritual as well as meeting their candidates previously at a meeting. A special thanks to Lauren Harrison for temporarily adopting me into her family, and letting me sleep on her couch. The next day I had the opportunity to have lunch with several sisters from Epsilon Theta, as well as an impromptu tour with Leo Espinosa around their campus and to meet their band director. I met even more of Epsilon Theta at a song practice, and was overwhelmed by the amount of bass ‘The Affirmation’ can actually have. And before I go on, a HUGE shout-out to both Theta Lambda and Epsilon Theta for become finalists for the National Chapter Leadership Award! (All of the applause).

The next day, I left Atlanta to meet with Shakerra Hill and the sisters of Zeta Tau where we bonded over a 3 hour wait at IHOP and some really good pancakes. The next day I visited with the lovely ladies of Iota Zeta, who deserve a round of applause for running a chapter of 5 look flawless. And another shout-out to Christa Hall for letting me commandeer her couch as well, and Sarah Newton for helping me find the apartment. For my final day, I was able to meet both Brittain Gantt from Eta Xi and Sheniekwa Smith from Iota Gamma. From these visits, I have seen that the chapters of the SED are in excellent hands and we are ready to take it to the next level.

Perhaps at this point you have noticed that I have repeatedly thanked and mentioned individuals who have helped me or gone out of their way to make me a small part of their life. This was by no means an accident. One of life’s greatest lessons that I have learned in my time with Tau Beta Sigma is that no matter how small the act of kindness, it will be appreciated nonetheless. And that our organization is full of kind, compassionate, and selfless people. Every sister in attendance has sacrificed their time, and often sanity, for not only the sake of their band programs but also for each other. I am forever grateful to you for that.

To Lee and Stephen: You have always had a knack for supporting me, and the rest of this and past councils. You are both always ready with a sassy come-back, or savvy advice and have talked me out of a panic on numerous occasions (even if you didn’t know it). I wish you both the best of luck, and hope you have even more fun next year with your new council.

Christa: I still have no idea you organize yourself so well, and manage to communicate it back to us just as well. I have truly enjoyed working with you, and I hope your future baseball team appreciates you as much as we do.

Madeleine: I thought I had connections, but you’re the real MVP. It has been an honor serving with someone so passionate for not only music, but life as well. I am humbled by your friendship, and wish you the best of luck in the Peace Corps.

Zach: I still have no idea how we can talk so much about Parliamentary Procedure. But our discussions have been some of the most insightful I have had about chapter functioning. I can’t wait to see what you bring to your chapter and the district this next year (whatever role that may be).

Julie and the rest of Beta Xi: You have seen me through the most trying of times, and have always been a shining example for unconditional love. I love our chapter, and know that I am who I am today because of you all. I’ll save most of my tears for later, but we are more than sister and more than friends. We are a band of gold.

Allison: Ten years ago, I was excited that there was another girl on the math team. Today, I am honored to not only call you my sister, but almost unbelievably one of my fellow council members. You know more than most how large a role band programs have played in my life, and I am glad you have been there almost every step of the way. Except for that in-state rival thing. But anyway, here’s to ten more years!

And lastly to the past and present members of the SED in attendance here today: You are my motivation, my role models, and my inspiration. Many of you are the past leaders who have guided me to where I am standing. And many more of you will do the same to your own mentees. Standing in front of you, I can feel our strength. I can feel our energy. This room is filled with the most dedicated leaders each chapter has to offer. All of you has the leadership potential necessary to take our district and our chapters to the next level. Find your goal, and go for it. And if you ever have trouble, don’t be afraid to reach out to your new council, or to anyone around the District. To quote High School musical, “We’re all in this together,” and the chapters of the Southeast District support each other. Always have, and always will.

Sisters of the Southeast District,

It is hard to believe that this school year is already wrapping up and that my term as the Southeast District Treasurer is coming to an end. It has been an incredible experience working with my fellow SED council members this year to serve you--our district--and promote its success and achievements.

Fundraising for the SED got off to a bit of a slow start. The efforts for a virtual/online fundraiser during the Fall semester (since we don’t meet as a district in the Fall) fell short, as I could not find such a fundraiser that could meet the needs of the district. With DLC at Troy University and of course SED here in Athens, fundraising picked up. We raised $212 in pure profit selling past district T-shirts at DLC and will be adding to that number for T-shirt sales here at SED. With the help of our Alpha Eta brothers who started Greeks by Neon, we are able to raffle off a custom set of letters to also help raise funds for the district this weekend at SED.

In our Spring Rainy Day campaign, we received $520.64 in donations from chapters throughout the SED. I want to extend a huge thank you to those chapters for their generosity to their fellow sisters. All three of our colonies (one of which is our newest chapter, oh hey Iota Chi!) were able to receive part of these funds to help them attend this SED convention! Although the Logo competition got off to a late start, I’m happy to say we have chosen a winner whose logo will be used for our SED National Convention T-shirts. Congratulations to Lauren Harrison, Do’Nyal Webb, and the Theta Lambda chapter at Auburn University for their winning submission to our 2015 Logo Competition!

To my fellow council members, you have been an absolute blast to work with this year. From our first days together at Florida Day, to our final weekend here in Athens, I have enjoyed getting to know each of you and growing closer to you. When I’m down, or behind, or feel like I am falling short, your encouragement and support is what keeps me going. Each of you in your own way inspire me to be a better sister. Whether it was bridging the gap to Terabithia, CVS missions at 2:30am (or really 3:30am), or detouring for ice cream without Lee (sorry Lee), our Journey this year has had plenty of fun twists. All of you do me a favor and always remember: cookiez over cupcakes, you do you, you’re a special snowflake, and I’m always, always a call or text away.

Lee: while sitting at Crepevine on my interview with you as a candidate, I never would’ve imagined being even a chapter officer; now I’m standing here giving a District Officer report at SED. If it wasn’t for you planting the seed in my head at NatCon 2013 (and Neil threatening to nominate me himself months later at DLC), I don’t think I would have ever had the courage to run for district council. Thank you for giving me the push I needed and for believing in me. I love that I got to have this experience, especially with you, one of my Alpha Omega sisters, as one of my counselors.
Stephen: I am so thankful I’ve had the opportunity to work with you this year and have learned so much from you about the ins and outs and history of our district. Thank you for always letting me pick your brain, for your honest feedback, for your continued guidance, and for handling my exponential rise in phone calls to you over the past few weeks.

To my sisters of Alpha Omega, past, present and future: Hopefully all of the waterworks happened last Sunday, but we’ll see how this goes. You took me in as a lonely freshman and with you I found my home. The friendships and sisterhood that I’ve gained, the opportunities I’ve encountered and the experiences I’ve shared with this chapter led me to tremendous growth and is more than I could have ever asked for. The love and support you’ve shown me, in both deserving and undeserving times, is invaluable and unmatched. Although it’s hard to believe I’m leaving now, I am so proud of you and I know our chapter has been left in good hands. Continue to grow and learn. I charge you to reach past the current limits we unintentionally set and to challenge yourselves to more, because you are capable of it. I love you all, “Many Hearts, One Bond”.

To the Southeast District: I’ve learned so much in my term and will continue to learn and experience new things from this district and from the relationships I’ve made throughout it; I encourage you to do the same. Our size and diversity does not lead to adversity, but instead expands our resources and ideas. I cannot thank you enough for allowing me to be your 2014-2015 SED Treasurer. “It’s an honor to be selected to serve”… especially for THE Southeast District.

Sisters of the Southeast,

It has been a true honor to serve this district as the parliamentarian for the past year. It has been a wild ride working with my fellow District Officers to help make the Southeast District a success over the year. As a fairly new member to the district, I can’t imagine my TBS life without this council the past year and letting them show me the ins and outs of the SED. Upon my transfer into the district, I knew very few people and my connections were numbered. This opportunity to serve has led me to meet so many of you and get accustomed to the true Southern Hospitality of the SED.

Tau Beta Sigma has been such an integral part of my life. As most of you know I’m an associate member and came over from our great brother organization, Kappa Kappa Psi. My time in KKY is something that I will always cherish, but coming over to Tau Beta Sigma was one of the best changes in my life. After completing my TBS process (Yes I did 2 separate processes, Yes that’s a lot of interviews) I felt a true sense of belonging in the organization. I jumped right into serving and found my place here on council. I’m extremely grateful to these members of the 2014-2015 council for appointing me to the position and giving me the opportunity to serve.

To the current council, I want to thank you for all you do not just as members of this council, but as true sisters. You all have been extremely important to me over the past year and I cannot imagine my life without you to bounce ideas off of and push me to be the best sister I can be.

To my Sisters of Eta Phi, thank you for letting me find the crazy balance between district and chapter. This was difficult at first but together, we made each other stronger and grew from the experience. I love all of you dearly and appreciate what you did for me as an associate member coming into your chapter. You made me feel right at home and always let me express my many ideas from my unique perceptive.

To the greatest District of TBS, this past year as been full of ups and downs. I’ve met so many fantastic people sitting in this very room in front of me, and I know you will all continue to push our district to its highest potential. If there’s anything I’ve learned in TBS, it’s that no matter how far you wander away, you’re never alone to walk the journey. This district embodies what it means to be sisters in the bond. Never forget, from today until our rest, with our sisters we are best.

As our terms wrap up, it’s crazy to think that it’s been a whole year of phone meetings, road trips, frantically finishing presentations the day before we give them, dessert-seeking, and inside jokes. Presenting at DLC, trying to pull everything together for convention and everything else we’ve done has been a blast and I’m glad I got to do it with you all.

To Beta Xi, my home collective of loveable weirdoes; Thank you for everything. Believe in yourselves and only ever change for the better.

To Carolyn; you poetic and noble land mermaid. Thank you so much for driving me around the SED for the past, you know, 3 years. Even if I get another month with you back in Gainesvegas, I’ll miss your kindness and the way you put your heart into anything you do.

Madeleine; you florescent light bulb of truth. I hope I can be half the kick-ass sister you are, and I will strive every day to not be a t-shirt wearer in anything I do.

Allison; you cunning pliable golden-haired sunfish. I love your smile. Never change. Unless it’s into Orange and Blue 😊

Zach you phenomenal well of ideas. I am so glad you joined us here in TBS and the SED and I hope that you love every moment here in “Theta Beta Sigma”

Christa, you are truly an angel with no wings. You’ve been a fabulous president, and I am so thankful you and Lee and Stephen put up with us even if we miss half of the deadlines you put in front of us, including the deadline to apply for this very same position.

Lee and Stephen; you beautiful rule-following moths. I am so glad we got to be part of your first council. I wish you all the cupcakes in the world and that next year’s council will somehow be even more fabulous than we were under your wise tutelage.

And to the SED; thanks so much for giving me this chance. It’s been a great year.

To the Southeast District:

What a year it has been! It is amazing that the year is over! It seems like just last week I was in Atlanta getting installed as a District Counselor of Tau Beta Sigma. That may be because that very day was the day when your district council got busy getting everything today.

Stephen and I early on decided that we would be working closely with certain members of the council as their “point-man” for year. I was working closely with Christa, Madeline, and Zach. Let me say this here and now, they made this job for me incredibly easy! GO TEAM!

After the officer turn over meeting, all of your district officers got busy collecting paperwork and planning for their term of office. Thus, the first official meeting of the 2014-2015 council was planned. It would take place at Florida Day in Orlando. My excitement continued to build but sadly, I would be unable to attend. This seems like an odd thing to mention considering I wasn’t there but, it was this moment when I realized how truly amazing this particular group of people were. I was attending the funeral of my grandmother but, Tau Beta Sigma was not going to make me go through it alone. As I was looking at the flowers I noticed there were some special ones. There was a bouquet on behalf of the SED Council. I am not sure if they ever truly knew how much this selfless action ever meant to me. So allow me to say it now, “Thank you all!” It meant more to me than you could know.

After I got back into the swing of things with TBS I realized that the district leadership had brought the Chapter Summary Reports from very low numbers to almost 100%. This is mostly due to Madeline’s insanely large contact list.

In the heart of the summer Christa, Stephen and myself were flown to Stillwater Oklahoma for National DLC. This was a terrific opportunity to meet all of the other district presidents and other members of the National Leadership. However, the most special moment was being able to be in attendance for the Wava Memorial. It was a really special moment with a ton of touching stories and memories from wava’s friends and families. For the record, her daughter is quite possibly part cheetah. I know this because we went running EEAAARRRRLLLLYYYY in the morning and she kicked everybody’s butt. #Wavakidsgotspeed. At DLC Christa and the counselors got right to work planning this convention.

Over the course of the entire year I was able to work with Iota Chi known previously as the colony at The University of South Florida. Watching these men and woman grow go through the process and they joy they had at their 3rd degree is something I will never forget. Meanwhile, they have been here ROCKING OUT Convention. I am proud of you all.

After DLC the council’s next project was collecting FAR’s and continuing other district projects. Meanwhile, I was working with the Capital Development Team helping to raise money for the National Sorority.

Once Spring started it was time for Tau Beta Yahs! The council traveled to Athens for Winter Council where a great deal of planning for both DLC and SED were put into effect. Although, I spent nearly 12 hours of my day on the floor of the Best Western and I did NOT get a GiGi’s Cupcake and I DID have to listen to a little boy no older than 6 yelling at a drunken woman during the Packer’s Seahawks Game, it was incredible to see the brainstorming happening from these students and the extreme dedication they had to making their office successful for you all!

In February we traveled to Troy Alabama to complete The District Leadership Conference. This was the first chance for me as a new counselor to see my kiddos at work. They did a PHENOMENAL job and gave me extreme confidence and excitement to see them at convention.

Finishing up my first year as a counselor (crazy), I continue working with students on developing leadership skills, solving council or life problems, learning how to take a breath or simply encouraging them to go to bed. This brings me to my last task the “thank-you”s.

Christa: Thank you for being organized all the time even if you didn’t always tell me that you had completed a task. It was always nice that whenever I called you while I walking my dog you had already thought through every situation and made a solution. I do apologize that you seem unable to not be injured or sick whenever we are around. I am sorry because I enjoy watching your jovial and warm spirit but it appears that I make you ill. You are a remarkable young woman and have been an incredible first president. Please stay in touch and share with me what is happening in your life.

To the Council: You all are dedicated, smart, beautiful, wonderful, hilarious perfect little angels. Even if you are all almost always tardy for a deadline and seem to only want to have district text conversation that start at 11pm. I have so enjoying watching you all develop into outstanding leaders and see you all renew your love to TBS and college bands. I am choosing to move quickly because my passion is students, and their development. Watching you all grow makes me emotional and my cry is too ugly for all that today.

To Kathryn: you have always been my knight in shining armor and been there whenever I was frustrated or just needed my convention boo. I am excited to work with you in the future and be ratchet this summer.

Jonathan: You and I have such a special relationship I thank you for always pushing my brain to think and expand my thought process. Our lively debates do make me think and even though I don’t always agree I love talking about them and they make me a better counselor so thank you.

Other Members of the National Council: Thank you for your constant support and encouragement or listening to me when I need ratchet hour or goof off time. You are always willing to oblige me and are always helpful when it is time for business.

Alpha Omega: You always have a special place in my heart. If I don’t know who you are, I want to. I love you and of course… Go Noles.

Crystal and Renee: I love you! I love that you all gave me the encouragement I have needed to be successful as a counselor. You have both been available for talks, chats, pick-me-ups or just a shout-out on Facebook. You have both been incredible pillars of support of me and two of my biggest role models in Tau Beta Sigma as a whole. It means the world to me that you are here for our first conventions as counselors. You’re both perfect.

Lastly, to the SED: You are all amazing, you are all capable of making some of the most diverse, educated, well-rounded leaders in the nation and I look forward to seeing SO MANY of you at National Convention. Thank you for being here and making the SED awesome.

Hello SED,

It’s hard to believe that four years ago was the last time I had the privilege of standing in front you to speak to you about the many good things that are happening in the SED. It’s also hard to believe that I have completed my first year serving as your district counselor. Time certainly does fly. When I was offered the position to serve as a Southeast District Counselor, I was not only excited beyond measure, but was also very nervous. Stepping into this new role I had huge shoes to fill, following two of the most successful counselors we have ever had in the SED, I would be working with 40+ Chapters and Colonies to help ensure chapter operations were at the highest level possible and would be responsible for advising and working with the SED Council. I wish I could say that everything was peachy keen and was a huge success, but that simply was not the case. This first year served as a huge learning experience for myself as I was learning to juggle a new role in the sorority, work full time as a band director, and juggle my own personal life. Many times throughout the year, I felt as though I was failing miserably at one of the above. I struggled with how much to push the council to get work done while giving them the room and space to work without feeling pressured. But I must say, we have gotten through a pretty great year. In an attempt to better understand our roles on council, Lee and I divided up the council members to give them a direct line of contact in the event they needed assistance or an ear to run their ideas and initiatives by. I had the pleasure of being assigned Will, Allison, and Carolyn.

Throughout this year, we definitely had a slow start with the Council but were given the opportunity to meet all together at Florida Day to start going over our personal goals in office as well as to begin planning for the year. We had a really good time and it was great to see the council start to create bonds (including many inside jokes). Following Florida Day, Christa, Lee and I had the honor of representing the SED at the National District Leadership Conference in Stillwater, OK where we got to begin convention planning, learn more about my role as counselor, but also witness the dedication of the Wava Memorial at National Headquarters. What a moving and memorable experience that I will hold on to for the rest of my life. (I even still have a picture of it on my phone) Following National DLC, the fall kicked off with a bang as I worked with my band program to initiate our first ever full scale pep-band, added a new fall concert, and added an additional band class to my school schedule. It was a lot of fun. As the fall came to an end, it was time to finalize all convention schedules and details so that they could be submitted to the National Leadership for review. Christa did some great work on putting this convention together and I applaud her diligence and organization.

As the Spring semester began, it was time to get geared up for the many events that were upcoming in the SED. The council met in Athens for our Winter Council meetings over Martin Luther King Weekend, where we got to meet with the host chapter to go over Convention Details, get a semi-tour of the convention site, and the council worked for many hours on DLC and SED. I have to admit, this was by far one of the most productive Winter Councils I have had the privilege of attending. This council has such a passion and hard-working attitude when we all get together and it shows in the work that they have been able to accomplish. Shortly after Winter Council, DLC came out of nowhere and man what a great weekend. I would like to commend Epsilon Xi on their absolutely incredible conference hosting. We could not have asked for a better host site. You all did amazing. DLC was such a great opportunity for the council to invest into the sisters that were in attendance. I know that all of those that came, left with some incredible resources that allowed them to help their chapters grow and develop in ways they had not before.

Between DLC and SED, I had the privilege of getting in some chapter visits. Thank you so much to Zeta Psi at UCF, Theta Rho at Bethune Cookman, and the NEWLY INSTALLED Iota Chi at University of South Florida for hosting me. I had a blast working with you all.

As this term comes to an end, I can’t help but feel a tremendous amount of enthusiasm for the future of the SED! We have seen some incredible work from chapters this year and some incredible growth, not only in chapter size, but in quality of chapter operations. This is a great sign. I want to challenge you all to always always strive to be better. Never settle for anything less the the absolute highest quality membership, service, and leadership! It is your job to serve the college bands. It is your job to develop into quality leaders for your band and community, and most importantly, it is your job to never settle for anything less than the absolute highest quality of excellence. Step out of your comfort zone. Build relationships with other chapters. Attend as many district and national events as possible. You won’t regret it!

In closing, I’d like to leave some final remarks to some very important people.

To Christa, Thank you for keeping the Epsilon Alpha legacy alive and working so hard this year. You are the epitome of organization and I envy your mad skills. I look forward to seeing your success in life as you graduate into the real world! You’re going to be amazing.

To the rest of the SED Council, you guys have been amazing. We have learned so much this year as a group and because of you all, we will be able to continue to grow and develop into a stronger Southeast District. You all have made me laugh, cry, scream and most importantly, very very proud. Whether your time on council continues, or your time has come to move on, you all will always have a place in the SED and will forever be remembered for your service. I love each and everyone one you all so much and can’t wait to see how you all continue to grow and develop into amazing young adults.

To the National Leadership Team. Thank you all so much for entrusting me with the duties and responsibilities of the SED Counselor position. I have learned and grown so much this year alone that I am not only a better counselor, but better professional from it. My love for the SED is so strong and I am so proud to be given the opportunity to continue to serve the sorority in this capacity.

To the SED. There is only one thing I have to say to you. I am so proud of you all. Your hard work and dedication to the ideals of our organization makes me so honored to be a part of your TBS Journey. My challenge to you is this. Please do everything within your power to attend National Convention. The future of our Sorority lies in your hands and by not attending, you are giving these tremendous decisions to someone else. Join us as we represent our district. Although there is a financial challenge, work with your SED Council to find a way. Your life will seriously change by attending this major event. Don’t be that chapter that isn’t represented! Kentucky is as close as it gets. Let’s show up and show out SED.

I look forward to working with many of you in the coming years and can’t wait until our next adventure together. As always, TBS….SED….Strength, Excellence, Diversity.

AND GO COCKS!
